1. At the time you were served or at any subsequent time did you owe the defendant any money or did he have any funds on deposit with you or were you liable to him on any negotiable or other written instrument, or did he claim that you owed him any money or were liable to him for any reason?

2. At the time you were served or any subsequent time was there in your possession, custody, or control or in the joint possession, custody, or control of yourself and one or more other persons any property of any nature owned solely or in part by the defendant?

3. At the time you were served or at any subsequent time did you hold legal title to any property of any nature owned solely or in part by the defendant or in which defendant held or claimed any interest?

4. At the time you were served or at any subsequent time did you hold as fiduciary any property in which the defendant had an interest?

5. At any time before or after you were served did the defendant transfer or deliver any property to you or to any person or place pursuant to your direction or consent and if so what was the consideration thereof?

6. At any time after you were served did you pay, transfer or deliver any money or property to the defendant or to any person or place pursuant to his direction or otherwise discharge any claim of the defendant against you?

7. At any time before or after you were served did you have a security interest in any property of the defendant or were you holding any document of title or other collateral of any kind as security for any loan or time purchase transaction between yourself and the defendant?

8. The following Interrogatory is only to be answered in the event all of your answers to the preceding Interrogatories are in the negative: At any time before you were served, did you have an account with the defendant that was still active within 6 months prior to the time you were served. If your answer is affirmative, state with particularity the last date that the account had $100.00 or more on deposit and the date that the account was closed as well as indicating whether the account was closed by the defendant drawing the deposit out or whether the account was closed by you for some reason having to do with the defendant not complying with all of your rules and regulations pertaining to the maintenance of an account.

9. Does any individual defendant(s) maintain an I.R.A. or Individual Retirement Account? Please be on notice that in the opinion of counsel for the plaintiff, I.R.A.s in the name of the defendant or defendants may be subject to attachment in whole or in part and may not be immune from same under the operative laws of Pennsylvania or under any operative Federal laws. NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FILE BILL OF COSTS
PURSUANT TO Pa.R.C.P. 3117(b)

Please take notice that Pa. R.C.P. 3117(b) provides that “all reasonable expenses in connection with the discovery (provided by Pa.R.C.P. 3117(a)) may be taxed against the defendant as costs if it is ascertained by the discovery proceedings that he has property liable to execution.

Pa.R.C.P. 3117(a) provides that the plaintiff before or after issuance of a writ of execution may take the testimony of any person including a garnishee on written interrogatories for the purpose of discovery of assets of the defendant.

Until the garnishee answers or acknowledges that it has property liable to execution, the plaintiff is unable to determine whether the reasonable expenses in connection with the discovery may be taxed as costs or not.

In the event the garnishee has property liable to the execution, the Prothonotary, sheriff, defendant, and garnishee are requested and placed on this notice not to calculate a total amount of debt and costs of record until the plaintiff has filed its bill of costs pursuant to Pa.R.C.P, 3117(b).

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FILE BILL OF COSTS
PURSUANT TO Pa.R.C.P. 3117(b)

Please take notice that Pa. R.C.P. 3117(b) provides that "all reasonable expenses in connection with the discovery (provided by Pa.R.C.P. 3117(a)) may be taxed against the defendant as costs if it is ascertained by the discovery proceedings that he has property liable to execution.

Pa.R.C.P. 3117(a) provides that the plaintiff before or after issuance of a writ of execution may take the testimony of any person including a garnishee on written interrogatories for the purpose of discovery of assets of the defendant.

Until the garnishee answers or acknowledges that it has property liable to execution, the plaintiff is unable to determine whether the reasonable expenses in connection with the discovery may be taxed as costs or not.

In the event the garnishee has property liable to the execution, the Prothonotary, sheriff, defendant, and garnishee are requested and placed on this notice not to calculate a total amount of debt and costs of record until the plaintiff has filed its bill of costs pursuant to Pa.R.C.P, 3117(b).
